

HOUR OF POWER BIBLE STUDY LUNCH PROCEDURES

Thank you so much for volunteering your time and resources for
The LOCC Hour of Power Bible Study.

When providing lunch, please arrive at the ATLAS offices,
122 Main Street, Greensboro, GA around 11:40 a.m.

The ATLAS facilities are closed on Mondays, thus access is only through the rear entrance.

Turn left off of Main Street, by Rite Aide and proceed to the rear of the stores.

You will see an open area with a porch and a set of stairs.

Mr. C's will be on your right as you turn down the rear alley.

Parking is welcome in Mr. C's lot.

Enter through the back door, turn left, walking down the hall until you enter a room with tables set in a "U" formation.

The table at the front of this room is where food for lunch may be placed.

Lunch may take on any form you desire.

Others have provided sandwiches and fresh fruit, or a casserole and a salad, or a platter of cold meats with rolls, or pasta salads, or sub sandwiches ... you name it.

Make it easy!

Nutritious meals are always appreciated.

But, desserts are too.

Drinks may be your choice as well. Bottled water is always easy.

Any required utensils, plates, napkins, cups, etc, are to be brought along as well.

Those attending the bible study enjoy taking any left-overs home to their families.

Bringing zip lock bags is always a great idea.

Thanks again!
